

UCC PROFESSIONAL DAY

Who: Church Professionals and Friends

What: Conversation with Dr. Wendy F. Soltz

“JUDAISM CONFRONTS AMERICA”
The denominations of Judaism
(and how they formed here in this country), antisemitism and how the US grappled with its Jews
as different.

When: Monday, November 11, 2019

Where: First United Church of Christ

2100 Greendale Ave., Findlay, Ohio 45840

Dr. Soltz is an assistant professor at Defiance College. She holds a Ph.D. in Modern Jewish History from The Ohio State University, as well as a Master of Arts in Anthropology and Museum Studies from Brandeis University, a Master of Arts in Anthropology and Museum Studies from George Washington University, and a Bachelor of Arts in Anthropology from Indiana University.

$25 Registration Fee

Registration deadline November 5, 2019

PROGRAM

9:30 am

Registration

10:00 am - 2:00pm

Presentation, including lunch

This event will satisfy the Lay School evangelism requirement.

Online Registration Available at www.nwoa.org (events)

or by returning the following registration to

Northwest Ohio Association, UCC, 416 Wentz St., Tiffin, OH 44883

CHECKS PAYABLE TO: NWOA

UCC Professional Day –Judaism Confronts America - Registration – First UCC, Findlay – November 11, 2019

Name _____

Phone _____

Address _____

City, Zip _____

Email address _____

Church _____

City _____

Amount Enclosed _____